Andrew Lucek, Sales and Channel Manager, Red Hat
- 09:40 - 10:10 Red Hat emerging products – Red Hat is more than Linux ...
Andrew Lucek, Sales and Channel Manager, Red Hat
Red Hat is known for decades for its flagship product – Red Hat Enterprise Linux – which provides the foundation you need to build your business regardless whether you're rolling out new applications, virtualizing environments, or creating an open hybrid environment. However Red Hat offers much more to help your business and IT infrastructure to be more effective, agile and ahead of competition. During this presentation we will introduce to you the wide family of emerging products which you would not miss when considering your „IT transformation route“.
- 10:10 - 10:40 Stone Age datacenter? Modernize it with open, software-defined storage.
Wojciech Furmankiewicz, Sr. Solutions Architect, Red Hat CEE
Unlike proprietary, hardware-based storage, the Red Hat® Storage portfolio of products gives you an open, software-defined storage platform that scales across physical, virtual, and cloud resources. It drastically cuts costs, prevents vendor lock-in, and lets you add infinite capacity without degrading performance.
- 10:40 - 11:10 A mobile application platform for your mobile-first strategy.
Jaroslav Stakun, Sr. Solutions Architect, Red Hat CEE
Mobilizing business processes and applications can increase your efficiency, help you better engage with customers, and lower costs. Red Hat Mobile Application Platform enables you to develop and deploy mobile apps in an agile and flexible manner. Take advantage of open technologies and standard toolkits while centralizing control over security, back-end integrations, and policy
- 11:10 - 11:40 Coffee break
- 11:40 - 12:10 Red Hat Gluster Storage and Red Hat Ceph Storage – live demo
Wojciech Furmankiewicz, Sr. Solutions Architect, Red Hat CEE
Let's have a look under the cover of the two software defined storage products:
- Red Hat Gluster Storage - Provides a scalable, reliable, and cost-effective data management platform, streamlining file and object access across physical, virtual, and cloud environments.
- Red Hat Ceph Storage - Provides a robust, highly scalable block and object storage platform for enterprises deploying public or private clouds. Voted No. 1 storage option by OpenStack® users.
- 12:10 - 12:40 Red Hat Mobile Application Platform – live demo
Jaroslav Stakun, Sr. Solutions Architect, Red Hat CEE
During the live demo we will present you an easy way how to set a new mobile application in minutes ... And other cool features allowing you to integrate your mobile strategy easily into your IT infrastructure.
- 12:40 - 13:10 Q&A, wrap up and prizes drawing
Andrew Lucek, Sales and Channel Manager, Red Hat
- 13:10 - 13:20 Lunch
